LivingWorks Webinar:

Using Networks of Safety to save lives from suicide

“Suicide prevention is everybody’s business.”

It’s a phrase we often hear—but how can we translate it to action?

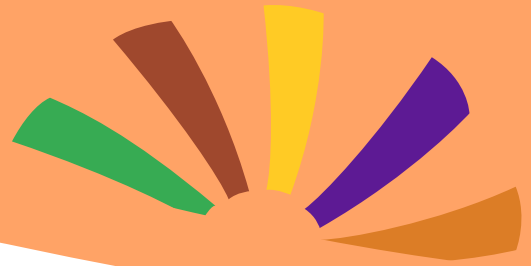

What does community-based suicide prevention really look like, and how can it save lives in workplaces, organizations, and neighborhoods?

This World Suicide Prevention Week, join LivingWorks for a look at our groundbreaking Network of Safety approach to suicide prevention.

We’ll explore concepts that empower all individuals—from beginners to experts—to be part of the solution together.

The Network of Safety approach helps realize the promise of community-based suicide prevention
